NEWSLETTER
OCTOBER 2012

Message from the President
Judy Paulson — 972-618-3049
judy.paulson@tx.rr.com

Our year is off to a magical start thanks to the amazing feats of George the Magician, our Program chair Denise Hogan and our Activity chair Joyce Pollacia. At the first general meeting, September 11th, everyone was thrilled with the fire eating displays, the rope and card tricks, and the disappearing wine bottle. George and Joyce Pollacia did a great job incorporating the activities available in the Forest Creek Woman's Club with the magic of George.

Please take the time to sign up for available activities online. Most of the activities have the ability for you to sign up as a substitute if you wish. The variety of activities is one of the main reasons our woman's club is so popular.

Our membership also is having a fantastic start. We welcomed four new members at the September general meeting. They included Anne Readhimer, Susan Lafnar, Joni Lewis and Ann Gruebel.

The opportunity to meet new neighbors and friends is available on Saturday, October 6th at 7 pm. The Membership Committee is hosting a BBQ at the home of Denise Hogan. Hopefully you signed up by the reservation deadline.

This promises to be another great year for FCWC!

You have been so good to get your dues money, advertising money and BBQ money to Diana, and we are off to a great year. We have a lot going on!

Some of you have asked about how to pay without writing a check, i.e. electronically, so here goes. Simply log on to your bank’s website. Click on “bill pay” and establish “Forest Creek Women’s Club” as one of your accounts. Instead of an account or routing number, simply enter in my address, 3321 San Simeon Way, 75023. Your bank will send FCWC a check. Since you will probably write 4-5 checks a year to the club, you may prefer this method. Of course, checks are still/always accepted.

Forest Creek Woman's Club October Program

Ladies, here is your chance to join together with your neighbors in one of the oldest and most revered women's traditions: knitting.

If you know how to knit, come knit and mentor the newbies. If you don't know how to knit, no worries!! Our presenter and experienced knitter Renee Baron will guide you through the steps.

Our mission: each of us will create a small square, then Renee will bind all of our squares together to craft a lovely quilt. Our united labor of love will then be donated to a child in need for the winter.

One pair of size 6 knitting needles and yarn will be provided for you to use and take home. If you already own size 6 needles, please bring them.

Activity fee: $5 for 2 needles and yarn
(or $3 if you bring your own size 6 needles)

Come experience the true meaning of community!

Well, the newsletter made it out, and the ads received special attention by being sent out separately. What an exciting start!

Thank you to Sherry Coleman, Judy Paulson, Joyce Pollacia and Denise Provencher for all their patience and help with this experience.

Please watch the website for future and past newsletters.

The articles for the November newsletter are due October 24th.

Thanks again!

The website is updated and ready for the new year. If you have activities that need to be placed on the calendar, please let me know at scoleman@harvestpartners.net or shercole@verizon.net. You can check out the updated FCWC website at <http://www.fcwc.net> still using last year's password. The password will not be changed until the first of October.

Registration is in full swing, so please go online, log on, and complete the easy online registration form. If you need help, contact me for assistance. As you register, take advantage of the opportunity to join one or more of our fun activity groups—but remember you can ALWAYS go back and add an activity if you fail to do so during registration. I can help you with that as well!

Finally, if your picture is not on our directory page, or if you have an updated head shot that you'd like to use instead, please send me the photo in jpg format. We can also put your pets' pictures on our Forest Creek Critters page if you'd like to send me those as well.

We're looking forward to another wonderful year!

rebeccasehnert@yahoo.com

Hello from Moms & Tots! We enjoyed our kick off meeting on Monday, September 10th & will continue to meet every Monday at 9:30 AM at various host homes in the neighborhood. The weather is cooling off so we are also looking forward to having some playground time with the kiddos as well as planning some outings to a local pumpkin patch or the Arboretum. If you are in the “adventurous” season of raising infants to preschool age children and are interested in joining us, please contact Rebecca Sehnert at 214-450-5969 or rebeccasehnert@yahoo.com

Corinne Kowalski—972-491-1340

Our month of September was an active one covering births, sympathies and recoveries. Our sympathies went to Ronnie Vokolek on the loss of her nephew, Marion Bize on the loss of her mother, Pat and Christine Gray on the loss of a dear aunt and Randi Gerber-Katz on the loss of her mother-in-law. On a brighter note, Cliff Jernigan, Marie Harris (Laurie Thomas's mother) and Shannon Martin's father are all doing well after their surgeries. Our congratulations to Diana Hueter on the birth of twin granddaughters, Brooklyn and Sidney, born on September 1st. If you know of any FCWC members who are in need of support, please call or email me. As always, please pray for our military and their families.

Thank you, Mona, for kicking off the season! It was fun to see everyone after the summer break and to welcome new members. Steve Jobs was a fascinating biography and a great subject for discussion. We also enjoyed the fabulous spread, Jennie’s wedding pictures, and Mona’s LSU-inspired bathroom!

Our next meeting will be on Thursday, October 4th at Lisa Chill’s home, 3504 Terry Drive (note change of location). We will be discussing The Kitchen House by Kathleen Grissom. If you plan to attend, please RSVP to Lisa at lichill864@gmail.com or 972-208-8602. The Ya-Yas is open to all members of FCWC, so please join us!
