From the President February 2014

Forest Creek Woman's Club continues to be an active organization! We pretended we were part of the Antique Roadshow at our January general meeting held at the lovely home of Barb Barton. Some of the items displayed included Nancy (aka Annie Oakley) Ganci's pistols, beautiful costume jewelry from Pat Gray, a serving platter Lisa Chill bought for $10 now worth $150, and an exquisite lamp belonging to Lynn Brule's grandmother valued in the six figures. All of the items had some sort of history. What a fun night to hear about the connections. Thank you to all of you who brought your treasures.

Coming up next is our FCWC's "Luck be a Lady Tonight" Casino Night. The evening will include dinner, dancing and gambling! Get your check into Ellen Brigham as soon as possible. This event is always very popular! You may also bring guests that are not Forest Creek Woman's Club members to this social.

There is also a nominating committee working behind the scenes on the upcoming Board of Directors slate for 2014-15. Please say yes when someone calls you for a position. The Board is a fun group of women, and it is a great way to meet more people in our neighborhood.

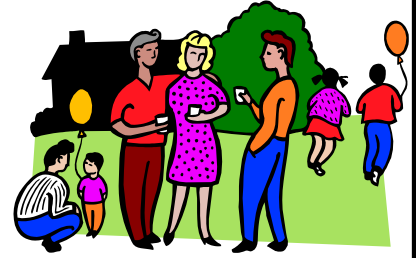

Thank you,,

Judy

Patty Boyer-Moore—972-208-0164

patty.boyer.moore@hotmail.com

What a fabulous general meeting we had with our “Antiques Roadshow”! I love knowing more about our history and heritage, and everyone brought in such interesting items. We owe a HUGE thanks to Barbara Barton for sponsoring this. PLUS, weren't our refreshments DELIGHTFUL—much more than just refreshments! Barbara Desco invests so much time and effort showing her love for us and our neighborhood. Be sure to thank her, too. “The Two Barbaras” are the best!!!

Antique Road Show

Thank you Barb Barton for a wonderful evening of antique appraisals! This popular event was an entertaining and educational activity especially designed for FCWC. Hailed as an intimate version of “The Antiques Road Show,” the evening offered members the opportunity to discover the history and value of treasured family heirlooms or flea market finds. Professional appraisers, Donald King Cowan and C.L. “Sam” Webb, conducted an interactive event where we were both entertained and educated. Everyone was buzzing afterward and RAVE reviews could be heard from the members that attended. Items presented included a Navajo basket, a Santa Fe blanket, heirloom jewelry, an original watercolor, a 100+ year old table, children’s books, a walking cane, a large whiskey decanter, Dresden porcelain, a large blue platter and many other interesting objects. It was exciting to see and learn about our members’ “treasures.”

Our General Meeting Program for February will be Estate Planning by Cynthia D. Hurley

The fact is most Americans do not have a will, let alone a revocable living trust. Yet ask anyone who has dealt with the estate of a deceased family member who didn't have solid plans in place, and they'll tell you how frustrating, time consuming, and expensive it is to get everything sorted out. If you die with no will or trust in place, the courts will follow state law to disburse your assets – no matter what you may have once promised your sister or told your spouse. If you die with a will in place, the courts will have to give the document a stamp of approval before divvying up your estate. The cost of this necessary judicial step can eat up more than 5 percent of your estate's value.

You can avoid bequeathing that heartache and headache to your loved ones by setting up the essential documents so that when you die, your assets go exactly where you want, as quickly as you want, with the least amount of expense. Attorney Cynthia Hurley is a resident partner with Jordan, Houser & Flournoy, L.L.P. She will discuss how to ensure that your property is transferred according to your wishes, that you are able to provide financial security for your spouse, and that your estate pays the least amount of estate taxes possible. Do you have the 4 “must have” documents: a will, revocable trust, financial power of attorney, and durable power of attorney for healthcare? Come and learn what legal documents you need and how to best declare your intentions.

All members are invited. We will meet in my home, 3500 Terry Drive, at 7:00 PM Tuesday, February 11th.

If you have ideas for the website, please let me know!

Similarly, if you experience any problems, I'd appreciate hearing about them and will try to resolve them (no promises). Be sure to let me know what OS and browser you are using, so our technical staff (LOL) can try to reproduce the problem.

Thanks!

Denise

Moms and Tots

Rebecca Sehnert—214-450-5969

rebeccasehnert@yahoo.com

Hello from the Moms & Tots group! We are representing the future stars of Forest Creek, so if you have infants to preschoolers & would like to join us, now is the time! We meet on Monday mornings at 9:30. If it's nice outside we like to meet at the neighborhood playground off of Michael Drive, or we take turns meeting in each other's homes. Contact Rebecca Sehnert at 214-450-5969 if you would like to join in on the crazy fun!

Ya-Yas Book Club

Joyce Pollacia — 972-618-2146

joyce_pollacia@hotmail.com

We kicked off the New Year at the lovely Valentine Decorated Home of Diana Hueter. Diana not only served up delicious appetizers but did a great job leading the discussion.

It was a book that everyone enjoyed. Thank you so much Diana!

Our next meeting has changed locations only—to Joyce Pollacia’s at 3437 Terry Drive. It will be on Feb. 6th at 7:00 pm. The discussion of THE SHOEMAKER’S WIFE will be led by Patty Boyer-Moore.

This is an epic tale of immigration, love, and finding your life. The novel spans three decades, from the 1910s to the end of World War II. At the center of the story are Ciro and Enza, two young immigrants from the same small town in the Italian Alps. Both must immigrate to New York under duress, after their initial spark in Italy. After a chance encounter in New York, the two must decide if their future lies together or apart.

All members are invited to come to this discussion. Please call Joyce at 972-618-2146 or email at joyce_pollacia@hotmail.com if you plan to attend. For more information please feel free to call me at 972-618-2146.

Patricia Kempf - 716-544-0698

Psbrown78@aol.com

Have a heart, ladies, and come to lunch with your favorite Valentine neighbors. For February we will meet at Urban Rio Cantina & Grill, located at 1000 east 14th Street in downtown Plano. The date is Tuesday, February 11th at 11:30 a.m. Municipal parking lots are available near the restaurant (formerly the Ice House) and across the street. Check www.urbanrio.com for their delicious Mexican menu. A special welcome to any new FCWC members who would like to attend. Please call or email Patricia with your reservation by Sun. Feb. 9.

Bunko I

Linda Whelan—972-618-3731
linda_whelan@verizon.net

Thanks Janet for a great time at our first Bunko of 2014! We always have so much fun at your house. And the dessert was so yummie.

Our February Bunko will be at Linda's on Wed. February 12th at 7:30p.m. Linda's address is 3416 Nancy Ct. If you are not able to come- please call Linda at 972-618-3731 with your sub's name. Looking forward to seeing everyone.

Bunko II

Corinne Kowalski—972-491-1340
cookie0242@verizon.net

Thank you, Ellen, for hosting our first Bunko of the year and for the array of wonderful food. It was a cold evening and the Chili was a wonderful comfort food. We had another record number of Bunkos, 17 in all with Pat getting the last one. Our subs made out again with Linda Whelan getting high score and Jennie Little low score. Cindy got high score for rolling 4 of them. There has been a change in our schedule for next month. I will have Bunko at my home on February 18th and Sandy is taking my place in May. I will send a reminder to all.

Welcome to winter, Bunko Babes! Here in Texas, you get whatever you want---just wait a few days and it will be freezing or warm! Many thanks to Helen for hosting the January meeting, to her husband for filling in on short notice, and to our carpool drivers.

I am very glad to be back for our February meeting at Brenda Cerrato's home, 3408 Gary Drive, on Monday, February 10, at 7:30 p.m. If you can't be there to share the love with us, please call Brenda at (972) 618-0831 with the name of your sub. You all are my Valentines.

Bunko IV

Diane Apprill—972-618-2412
daprill@aol.com

We held our November Bunko at Kristie Tower's home with our Crazy Sock Exchange. We didn't manage to play, but we did have a fabulous time with great food and wine. Kristie's home was decorated beautifully, and enjoyed by all. Bunko IV will bring in 2014 at Denise Provencher's home this month. Home-made Butternut Squash Soup - YUM!, need we say more? We are celebrating birthday's this month, apparently we have 4 members all celebrating their 39th this year. Again!!
